ПРЕДИСЛОВИЕ

Дорогой друг!

У тебя в руках пособие, которое поможет тебе подготовиться к выполнению заданий Всероссийской проверочной работы (ВПР) по английскому языку. Эта работа предназначена для контроля и оценки уровня владения английским языком, которого ты смог достичь по окончании 7 класса. В данном пособии собраны 10 тестов, каждый из которых содержит задания письменной и устной части.

Письменная часть представляет собой тест, в рамках которого проверяются умения аудирования (прослушивание диалога), чтения (чтение текста с пониманием его основного содержания) и уровень владения лексикой и грамматикой английского языка. В устной части работы тебе нужно будет прочитать вслух отрывок из текста и описать человека на фотографии с опорой на план.

При выполнении заданий следуй инструкции и записывай ответ в отведённом для этого месте. Советуем выполнять задания в том порядке, в котором они даны. Для экономии времени пропускай задание, которое не удаётся выполнить сразу, после выполнения всей работы можно будет вернуться к пропущенным заданиям.

В конце пособия помещены ключи ко всем заданиям и даны скрипты аудиотекстов.

Аудиокурс к учебному пособию размещён в электронном каталоге издательства «Просвещение» на интернет-ресурсе www.prosv.ru.

Желаем тебе успеха в подготовке к ВПР и получения высоких результатов!

- 2. Enjoy a beautiful view
- 3. Visit a legendary tower
- 4. Stay healthy
- 5. Don't be afraid of height
- 6. Try delicious food

A. Far East is a dream destination for many Russians, and Vladivostok is the heart of it. The city dates back to the 19th century. The best place for views is the Eagle's Nest Hill. It is the highest point in the city centre. Vladivostok is situated very close to the Russian-Chinese borders. That is why it's almost the only place in Russia where good Chinese food is widely served.

B. Altai is known as the 'golden mountains'. Ecotourism has become very popular here. Many agencies offer tours of the nearby areas. Tourists can go on a hike along the ways from local legends, they are told to visitors as they go. Sailing, kayaking and fishing are among other activities. Altai is also famous for its honey and herbs.

C. Yessentuki is a name you can see on the shelves of grocery stores around the world: this historical resort town gave its name to a brand of salty mineral water. Since the 19th century the town has been popular with people who care about their health.

D. In the north-west of the Sayan Mountains, there is Stolby National Park. It is one of the most popular tourist spots in Siberia. The most attractive things to see in the park are its rocks and cliffs called with a Russian word 'stolby' because of their shape. The smallest cliffs are 55 metres high, while the highest go up to 600 metres. Rock-climbing has become very popular here.

E. Karelia, a republic in the north-west of Russia, is known as one of the country's most beautiful places. The nature here is fabulous and looks more Finnish than Russian, with lakes, waterfalls and trees growing on huge rocks. The most interesting spot here is Ruskeala Mountain Park with a marble canyon. The canyon is now a lake with crystal clear water, and there is also another lake which is underground. In summer there are light shows on the lake.

Getting around Moscow by bicycle

Nowadays we can see more and more people 7 _____ along the streets of Moscow.

Cycling in the centre of Moscow is still a dangerous prospect because of the hustle and bustle of a big city. The traffic 8 _____ too heavy and the exhaust fumes are nasty.

The Moscow city bike network 9 _____ to develop rapidly a few years ago. Before that, stationary bike rentals were only found in some large parks and fewer people 10 _____ to ride bicycles on the roads.

Not so long ago the city started a campaign to make the city 11 _____ for cyclists. In 2016 there were some 250 kilometres of bike lanes. And the city is going to paint additional 500 kilometres in coming years. If you plan to explore the streets of Moscow on two wheels on your own, you will find many different bike routes for pleasure riding, including Gorky Park, Vorobyovy Gory Nature Preserve, Sokolniki and VDNKh.

Electric cars have not been popular among Russian drivers because of extreme climate, high price, and limited distance on a single charge.

However, this summer a Russian company has presented its prototype for a new model of electric cars. There are many people in Russia who believe that Russia needs electric cars. They say that it's hard to breathe in Moscow, and an electric car is environmentally friendly. For large cities it's a way to solve environmental problems.

- 1. Enjoy mountain hiking
- 2. Activity holidays
- 3. Discover earlier cultures
- 4. Wildlife holidays
- 5. Feed wild animals
- 6. Polar expeditions

- A. Our agency offers different activities for everyone, people who love danger or who just like sports. We have a huge variety of water, snow or desert holidays. Enjoy scuba diving in the Red Sea or kayaking and whitewater rafting in Canada. Prefer snow? You can try skiing or snowboarding in the Alps or even igloo-building. For those who like warmer weather, we also have sandboarding (the desert version of skateboarding) or camel safaris.
- B. Take a cruise to Antarctica or the northern Arctic; explore a land of white beauty and wonderful wildlife. Our specialists will explain everything about the two poles as you watch the penguins in Antarctica or whales and polar bears in the Arctic. There's no greater adventure than travelling to the ends of the earth. A once-in-a-lifetime experience!
- C. Our cultural journeys will give you an opportunity to touch ancient civilisations: India, Thailand, Egypt and many more. Visit temples, palaces and ancient ruins — just remember to bring your camera! Learn about local ways of life by exploring markets, trying exotic foods and meeting local people. See it with your own eyes!
- D. We have trekking holidays to famous places such as Machu Picchu or the Everest Base Camp Trek, as well as some the Highlands of Scotland. You don't need to be very sporty, just fairly fit. You'll have a great time enjoying nature with a group of new friends. Some of the holidays include camping, but we'll transport the tents for you!
- E. We organise small group tours to get closer to nature in Africa, Asia or South America. Go on safari in Africa and watch lions and giraffes. Meet the famous turtles of the Galapagos Islands.

Look for tigers in India, or take an elephant safari in Sri Lanka. We use local guides and stay in different accommodation, from tents to tree houses.

The best way to travel

In the [7] \_\_\_\_\_ regions of Russia you'll see every type of modern transport. But during the winter months the Sakha Republic (or Yakutia) becomes one of the coldest parts of the world. Temperatures fall as low [8] \_\_\_\_\_  $-50^{\circ}\text{C}$ . Car engines can freeze and even if your car [9] \_\_\_\_\_, the snow and ice on the road can make it impossible to travel. When the weather is like this, the best way to travel is with a team of dogs pulling you. Popularity of dog sledding [10] \_\_\_\_\_ with the arrival of Russian traders to the Arctic. Yakutian Laikas might not be as fast as a modern snowmobile but they are better for the environment. The journey is also much quieter than by a snowmobile.

Everyone [11] _____ that kids love sledding. They also love dogs. If you combine the two with a dose of clear blue sky, you will have the perfect family winter adventure.

Greenpeace is an international organisation, it has been working for the protection of the environment since 1971. Now it has regional and national offices in 46 countries. One of the longest banners they've ever made is 'When the last tree is cut, the last river poisoned, and the last fish dead, we will discover that we can't eat money'. A Greenpeace office in Russia was established in 1989 later they were given the name of Greenpeace Russia. In 2001 a branch was opened in Saint Petersburg. 4. Exciting mathematics

5. An inspiring fruit
6. The honourable prize

- A. American astronomer Edwin Hubble is famous for discovering the existence of other galaxies, as well as his important work on astrophysics and his invention of the most powerful Hubble Space Telescope. Hubble had a great influence on astronomy, and science in general, by showing that other galaxies besides our own Milky Way existed. People used to think that there was only the Milky Way galaxy, Hubble's discoveries which were announced in 1925 changed our view of the universe. An asteroid and a moon crater were also named after him.
- B. Sir Isaac Newton is one of the most influential scientists of all time. He came up with numerous theories and ideas in many different fields such as physics, mathematics and philosophy. In 1687, Newton published the book Philosophiae Naturalis Principia Mathematica. In it he describes universal gravitation and the three laws of movement. Newton was known to have said that his work on developing a theory of gravitation was inspired by watching an apple fall from a tree. A story is well-known to this very day.
- C. Stephen Hawking was one of the most famous scientists of modern times. He gave the world of science a lot of new ideas and theories. He helped to make science popular with general public by writing easy-to-read books such as A Brief History of Time. Hawking worked a lot on the subject of black holes, providing theories for their behaviour, including the idea that they emit radiation.
- D. Galileo Galilei was an Italian scientist who helped open the eyes of the world to a new way of thinking about our solar system and astronomy in general. Among his inventions were telescopes, a compass and a thermometer. With his telescopes

Galileo could observe the sky in absolutely new ways. He discovered Jupiter's four largest satellite moons. The discovery of these moons was against scientific ideas of that time and it was difficult for Galileo to explain to some people that he had indeed discovered such objects.

E. Albert Einstein is perhaps the most famous scientist of all time. Both his image and brilliant work on theoretical physics live on today and he is an inspiration to young scientists around the world. Even when he was very young, Einstein showed great ability in both math and science. He was naturally curious and had a brilliant analytical mind. He is also well known for his theory of relativity. Einstein won the 1921 Nobel Prize in Physics for his work on theoretical physics.

Tigers

Tigers are the [7] _____ members of the cat family. They are the national animals of many countries but some kinds of tigers are endangered because of human activity. Tigers [8] _____ reach a length of up to 3.3 metres and [9] _____ as much as 300 kilograms. Tiger cubs leave [10] _____ mother when they are around 2 years of age. Everybody knows that tigers are good [11] _____ swimming and can swim up to 6 kilometres. Tigers usually hunt alone at night time. Tigers are also known to reach speeds up to 65 kph.

Weather

How much do you know about weather and climate? If we put it very simply, weather is the state of the 12 _____ at any given period of time. The atmosphere is made up of different gasses, like oxygen, that surround the 13 _____. What is happening in the atmosphere is the weather. Have you ever 14 _____ the weather forecast on the news or online? What kind of things do they tell us? Most weather forecasts will 15 _____ us what the temperature will be, if it's going to rain or snow, and if it will be cloudy or sunny. The fact that the Earth is round influences the weather. The Sun heats up the atmosphere and the Earth, but as the Earth is round, areas around the equator get more direct sunlight and are 16 _____. Areas around the poles get indirect sunlight, so, they are colder.

Modern cell phones can do much more things than just sending and receiving phone calls. With mobile phones we can send and receive text messages, emails, photos and videos as well as surf the Net, play games, listen to music and more. There are also some negative side effects of using mobile phone. For example, it is very dangerous to use a cell phone while driving, or students can cheat on tests by using their cell phones to get information. Pupils shouldn't use cell phones in classrooms or other school locations due to the distractions they can make.

- A. Mars, or the 'Red Planet' as it is sometimes known, has a dusty, rocky surface and a thin atmosphere. Its rather calm conditions and short distance to Earth make it the most likely destination for future planet exploration by humans. It has already been visited by a number of Mars robots in successful (and unsuccessful) missions. These highly advanced robots take samples and record important scientific data for scientists back on Earth to study.
- B. Venus is similar in size to Earth but a lot hotter! Venus is like an oven thanks to its thick clouds which keep the heat in. Venus is the hottest and the brightest planet with around 500 degrees above zero. Its size is slightly smaller than Earth's. The surface of Venus is often described as a 'stormy desert' full of many craters and very active volcanoes.
- C. Saturn is a gas giant which is perhaps the most beautiful planet in our solar system (other than Earth of course). It has spectacular ring system. Saturn is the second largest planet in our solar system. The rings are made up of millions of ice crystals, some as big as houses and others as small as water drop. Like Jupiter, Saturn has many moons which surround it.
- D. Uranus likes to be a bit different. It is blue-green in colour and rolls like a barrel rather than spinning like Earth and the other planets in our solar system. Uranus turns lying on its side. It was the first planet discovered by telescope. Since Uranus takes 84 Earth years to go around the Sun, this means that each of its poles is in daylight for 42 years and in darkness for the next 42.

E. Don't forget Pluto! It may not be officially recognised as a planet anymore but it's still there and has a lot of interesting facts and cool information. Pluto was the smallest and furthest planet from the Sun in our solar system, now it is not even officially seen as a planet because it is so far away from the Sun. Pluto is very cold with temperatures ranging from 235 degrees to 210 degrees below zero. Pluto consists of rock with a very thick ice cover.

The dreaming astronomer

There lived an astronomer who was very much interested in his observations. He [7] _____ to look up at the sky at night and to observe the stars.

Once, as he was walking and looking up at the stars at the same time, his leg slipped and he [8] _____ into a canal. He started shouting.

A passer-by, who [9] _____ his shouts, helped him out of the canal and asked, 'How did you fall into this canal?' The astronomer replied, 'I was so busy [10] _____ my observations that I did not notice it.'

The passer-by asked, 'How [11] _____ you expect to discover things when you don't take notice of things under your nose?' The astronomer walked away with a sad face.

When you think of a desert, what do you think of? Perhaps you think of the Desert in California or the Sonoran Desert in Arizona. Maybe you think of the Sahara Desert in Africa. All of these deserts are hot and they stay warm year-round. But not all deserts are hot. Antarctica is the largest desert on the Earth and the coldest temperature recorded here was 80 degrees below zero. A desert is any place that seldom gets rainfall. These areas usually have cloudless skies. Even hot deserts get cold at night as the cloudless skies allow heat to escape.

- 1. Check your spelling
- 2. Remove unwanted results
- 3. Several keywords give better results
- 4. Exact references can help
- 5. Special software for correct results
- 6. Avoid unnecessary words

- A. Search engines don't read sentences the way people do: instead, they look for the keywords on the websites they search. Use more than one keyword when you are doing a search. If you want to find information about pigeons, for example, it is better to type 'bird pigeon' in the search for 'bird pigeon' and not just 'pigeon' because 'pigeon' also may be the name of a hotel or a café.
- B. If you are looking for an exact sentence or phrase, for example 'pigeons are very clever', type it within the quotation marks " " and only these phrases will be shown. This is useful if you want to find some information which you have forgotten and remember only a part of it.
- C. When searching on the Internet you can find that you have got the results that aren't what you're looking for. In this case you can use a minus symbol to avoid the information you don't need. For example 'pigeon -hotel -café' would leave out all links to hotels and cafés.
- D. Make sure that you spell every word in the search box correctly. Even if you've made a mistake in spelling, the search engine can suggest the right variant. However, it is a pity when a small typing mistake brings unwanted results.
- E. Common terms like a and the are called stop words and are usually unnecessary. Punctuation is also typically ignored. But there are exceptions. Common words and punctuation marks should be used when searching for a specific phrase. Sometimes common words like the are important. For example, Raven and The Raven bring entirely different results.

Many cultures see the rainbow as a road between earth and heaven. Legends say that it goes below the end of earth and then comes back up again. In some myths the rainbow is like a staircase connecting earth to heaven. We all believe that the rainbow is a half-circle. The funny thing is that it's actually a circle. The reason why we don't see the other half of the rainbow is because we cannot see below the horizon. However, the higher we are above the ground, the more of the rainbow's circle we can see.

1. Mountain trips
2. Sea travel
3. City trips
4. How to save money
5. Beach vacations
6. Adventure travel

- A. These trips take place in a big city, for example, Moscow, New York, London, or Paris. The main point of these trips is usually to do some sightseeing. You can visit a few museums or do a boat or bus tour. These trips are great because there are so many different cities out there that have so many different cultures and unique things to offer. It may be faster than some would like for a vacation, but the great thing about it is that there are always endless possibilities of things to do, see and taste.
- B. This is what a lot of people consider a 'real' vacation. It may be a way to escape from cold weather and to get some sun. You can sit in the shade with a cold drink in your hand. This type of holidays varies from the all-inclusive resort trip to the romantic getaway. But no matter what you are going to do there it requires sun, nice weather, and a change of pace from the daily routine.
- C. For this, you need some type of outdoor activity. Camping, hiking and whitewater rafting all fall under this category. But you don't need to be terribly adventurous to enjoy the outdoors. Even those who like a warm comfortable bed and no dangerous activities can explore nature. State and national parks can be great destinations for all types of travellers.
- D. There is a whole subculture of people 'who love living aboard a big passenger cruise liner. It's a huge part of the travel industry, and now you can take cruises all over the world. It's a great way to see a lot of new places, without much of the hassle of travelling from place to place. Some cruise liners are known as being 'party boats' for college kids. And others, like Disney Cruise Liners, are great for families. It's really a great way to get a taste of many different places.
- E. Backpacking is really a form of budget travel (as opposed to luxury travel). Backpacking is also generally a longer-term type of travel than the typical vacation. Many backpackers are young, but that's not always true. They carry what they need with them and usually travel from place to place as cheaply as possible, sometimes booking overnight trains to save money on accommodations, or staying at hostels.

- A. The taiga is a type of forest. It is the largest ecosystem on the Earth. The largest taiga forest covers much of northern Russia and Siberia. Other major taiga forests include North America (Canada and Alaska) and Scandinavia. The taiga is the driest and coldest type of forests.
- B. Long, cold winters, and short, mild, wet summers are typical of this region. In winter, chilly winds from the Arctic bring bitterly cold weather in the taiga. The length of a day also varies with the seasons. Winter days are short, while summer days are long. Fires are also usual here in summer.
- C. Compared to other ecosystems, the taiga has less variety in plant life. The most common type of trees in the taiga is the pine. There may also occasionally be oaks and birches. The ground in the taiga is thin and not very rich. It is also rocky. With long winters and short summers, plants don't have a lot of time to grow in the taiga. The growing season only lasts for around three months.
- D. The cold climate of the taiga makes it a difficult place for many animals to live. The animals of the taiga must be able to survive cold winters. Many have thick fur to keep them warm. Others migrate to warmer areas in chilly winters. Animal populations are mainly seed-eating like squirrels and larger animals such as deer, elk, and snowshoe hare. They have large feet to allow them to walk on snow without sinking.
- E. Taiga is a Russian word meaning forest. It is interesting that many years ago the taiga was covered with ice. The occasional fire is good for the taiga as it opens up area for new growth. This area is endangered and becoming smaller due to deforestation.

Christopher Columbus is the explorer who is known for discovering America. Of course, there were already people 7 _____ in America at the time he arrived. We call them Native Americans. However, it was Columbus' voyage that started the exploration and colonisation of the Americas.

The simplest definition of energy is ‘the ability to do work’. Energy is how things change and move. It’s everywhere around us and takes all sorts of forms. It takes energy to cook food, to drive to school, and to jump in the air. Energy can take a number of different forms. For example, chemical energy comes from atoms, electrical energy is generated by the movement of electrons. Large objects such as the Earth and the Sun create gravity which is also a form of energy.

1. The annual themes
2. Why do we encourage bilingualism?
3. A multilingual community
4. What is a bilingual child?
5. International Mother Language Day
6. Learning foreign language is important for future

- A. Being bilingual means being able to speak two languages well and also knowing something about both cultures. It's about being able to understand when someone is speaking another language and being able to switch into speaking it with them. A bilingual child at two and a half can understand that 'Daddy speaks French and Mummy speaks English.
- B. In this case it is logical that with an English mother and French father children should be able to speak both languages to communicate, not only with parents but also with other family members. Learning two or more languages helps children to accept cultures other than their own. If speaking their mother language or languages at home and at school is encouraged, they are more likely to enjoy their difference and see difference in general as a positive thing.
- C. The first Mother Language Day was celebrated internationally on 21 February 2000. This date originated in Bangladesh where in 1952 a few students were killed in demonstrations protecting their mother language, Bangla. UNESCO has been celebrating International Mother Language Day for nearly 20 years now with the aim of encouraging cultural difference and worldwide tolerance.
- D. Each year the celebration presents a different aspect of language from how children improve their grammar skills at school to how to save some of the 6,000 languages that exist worldwide. One year was about developing the teaching of mother languages, and in 2002 the celebration helped raise linguistic and cultural traditions around the world.
- E. By speaking other languages as well as your own, or having two or more mother languages, you can help to create global community. Our support to this multilingual community is to get our children acquainted with varied cultures and languages and to try and learn a language of people around us.

Alfred Nobel, the famous scientist, decided to try and do something good with all the money he earned. He started to give prizes to people who made progress in literature, science, economics and, perhaps most importantly, peace. Not all awards are as noble as the Nobels. Most countries have a system for recognising and rewarding people who have done something good in their countries, there are now hundreds of awards and award ceremonies for all kinds of things.

1. Life lessons
2. Theatrical professions
3. Theatre educates
4. Ancient theatres
5. Develop patience
6. Watch TV

- A. Theatrical performance is the result of the work of many people. It might seem that the playwright creates the play, the director stages it, the actors make the audience believe in the reality of what is happening on the stage and that is all. But the magic is also created by artists, decorators, costumers, make-up artists, lighting technicians, stagehands and many others whom the audience does not see.
- B. Many plays are based on famous books or moments from history. Watching a performance that focuses on history or literature is a great way to bring important events or ideas to life. Theatre can be a great way to introduce children to classic fairy tales, short stories, and even poetry.
- C. Bringing a child to a theatre for the first time is a challenging experience. Children may not realise that a live play is quite different from a cartoon on TV or even a movie screen. Watching television has become an extremely popular form of entertainment for children. Because of this it is difficult for them to focus on one thing for an hour and a half. Theatre helps children learn how to sit quietly, respect others, and pay attention.
- D. Theatre is a safe way to expose kids to difficult situations and show them first-hand how to handle these situations. A play can teach lessons about staying true to who you are, as well as lessons of friendship. Some plays look at family life and show how to cope with troubles between sisters and brothers.
- E. We know that the first people who created plays were the ancient Greeks. It was about the year 500 BC. They divided plays into two kinds: tragedy and comedy. This division is still used today. These ancient Greek plays were performed outdoors in large amphitheatres, so that many people could see them. There were contests among the playwrights and the winner got a prize. The actors wore masks covering the entire face and head, with holes for their eyes and mouth.

Everybody knows that the human race appeared about two million years ago. Archeology is a science that allows us to have a general idea of the way primitive people lived. Two million years ago there was no Internet, smartphones, transport, factories, clothes, and many other things, which we are accustomed to nowadays. How did the ancient people manage to survive? They had to hunt to feed themselves, to build shelters from rain and cold, to defend themselves from wild animals.

1. An outdoor hobby
2. How to motivate
3. An active hobby
4. Importance of hobbies
5. Create anything
6. A young scientist

- A. Children tend to imitate adults. So, you can generate his interest to some activity by setting a personal example. When a child watches a grown-up doing something fun and creative, he is more likely to join in. Another way to help children choose a hobby is taking him to explore interesting places like museums, collector's studios, art galleries, plays, and concerts. He will not only learn new things but also discover his area of interest.
- B. A hobby can help children become confident, self-reliant, and independent. Having a hobby also strengthens the thinking skills of kids. A hobby not only develops qualities like team spirit, compassion, and patience but also teaches various life skills.
- C. Arts and crafts hobbies can be a wonderful way of feeding a child's imagination and giving a healthy channel to his creativity through fun activities. Some of the arts and crafts hobbies include origami, woodwork, knitting, drawing and many others.
- D. Kids may enjoy taking up gardening as a hobby. Together with the chance to dirty their hands while working with mud children can watch an absolute magic. A small seed gives birth to a flower or a bush or even a big tree.
- E. Meteorology is the study of weather. It can be a great hobby for kids and can also make an interesting career choice. Adults can give a child illustrated books about climate and weather or he can browse online as well. He may also try to learn facts from TV programmes.

Reporter: Good evening, Mr Sanders! I'm from The Sun. Can you tell what happened to you when you were driving home last week?

Mr Sanders: Well ... It all happened at about six thirty in the evening when I was returning home from work as usual ...

Reporter: Go on ...

Mr Sanders: All of a sudden something flew down right from the sky and hit the roof of my car. I was surprised!

Reporter: Wow! What was it?

Mr Sanders: You won't believe. It was a cat. A big grey cat!

Reporter: Oh, my God!

Mr Sanders: I stopped the car and got out. The cat was sitting on the ground looking at me. Then two people appeared. They looked very worried.

Reporter: Who were the people?

Mr Sanders: The cat's owners. It turned out that the woman had left the balcony door of their eighth floor apartment open. Everybody knows that cats are curious animals. So it was walking on the balcony parapet when it fell off onto my car.

Reporter: Oh, dear! That's terrible. How was the cat ... and your car?

Mr Sanders: That's unbelievable but after such a dangerous fall the cat was fine! As for my car it was damaged, there is a noticeable scratch.

Reporter: How do you feel now, Mr Sanders?

Mr Sanders: You know, I'm still a bit shocked as I couldn't understand what it was at the first moment.

Reporter: It's not surprising! What a story! Thank you for sharing it with us.

Rachel: Goodness me! Does he have any time for hobbies?

Sam: Not a lot really. We play football every weekend though if he doesn't perform. And what is your dad's hobby?

Rachel: He likes fishing.

Sam: Fishing! For me it is a bit boring to sit there and wait for so long doing nothing.

Rachel: Actually he doesn't seem to think so. It gives him relief from stress. Even if he catches no fish at all, it is much better than the time spent at home doing chores.

Sam: Sounds interesting! Maybe you are right.

Alan: What a fantastic performance! Elena, thank you for inviting me to the musical.

Elena: You are welcome. I'm happy you enjoyed the show. Alan, I was sure you would like it!

Alan: Right you are! The choreography of the dancers was incredible. It reminds me of the time when my mother used to dance.

Elena: I know! Your mother was such a talented ballerina. Does she miss dancing?

Alan: Well, it is difficult to say. But she is a fan of the arts. We have always seen a lot of performances.

Elena: What do you like most?

Alan: I love going to musicals because it's the perfect combination of song, dance and theatre. So, thank you again for the invitation.

Elena: No thanks at all. It's a pleasure!

ВАРИАНТ 10

АУДИОТЕКСТ К ЗАДАНИЮ 1

Shop assistant: May I help you?

Customer: Yes, I'm looking for some nice trousers.

Shop assistant: What size are you?

Customer: I'm a medium.

Shop assistant: Would you like blue trousers?

Customer: I'm looking for black trousers.

Shop assistant: Great! We have some very nice wool trousers over here. Would you like to take a look?

Customer: They're nice, but I'd prefer cotton trousers if you have them.

Shop assistant: What do you think about these?

Customer: Yes, they are nice. Could I try them on?

Shop assistant: Certainly, the changing rooms are over there.

Customer: Thank you.

Shop assistant: How do they fit?

Customer: They are too large. Do you have a small?

Shop assistant: Yes, here you are. Would you like to try them on to see if they fit?

Customer: No, that's ok. Thank you. I'll take them.

Shop assistant: Ok, how would you like to pay?

Customer: Do you accept credit cards?

Shop assistant: Yes, we do. Visa, Master Card, and American Express.

Customer: Ok, here's my Visa.
